

Friend Center Memory Café

Join us every month for a variety of cultural programs!

Individuals with mild Alzheimer's, related dementias and mild cognitive impairment are welcome. In order to attend, participants must be accompanied by a family member or care partner.

September's program is Bullying of Seniors: Awareness and Prevention. Participants will learn examples of bullying, how to identify it and its risk factors. The presenter will also share ideas on how to respond to incidents and create a positive environment. Presented by Joyce Marter, LCPC.

Please note new time and location for this month's Memory Cafe only.
