Northlight Theater Storytelling Workshop

Join CJE SeniorLife and Roseland Pullman community members for a special four-week writing and storytelling workshop series led by Northlight Theater teaching artists! In the first two workshops, participants will generate and refine material through in-class writing prompts, discussion, and peer feedback. In the third workshop, they will dive into the basics of storytelling and how to take writing from the page onto a stage. In the fourth and final workshop, writers will refine their final pieces as all participants are invited to submit their pieces for inclusion in a final booklet to be shared in the community.
