

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

CJE SeniorLife must notify you of your Health Information Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) privacy rights. CJE SeniorLife is a hybrid entity. Not all of CJE SeniorLife is covered by HIPAA, only the services listed as “HIPAA Covered Services” on the CJE Website are covered by HIPAA. This Notice only applies to clients served by those covered services. This Notice does not affect your eligibility for CJE services.

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Purpose of This Notice

This notice tells you about how we use and disclose your medical information. It tells you about your rights and our responsibilities to protect the privacy of your medical information. It also tells you how to complain to us, or the government if you believe that we have violated any of your rights or any of our responsibilities.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your medical information and to notify you following a breach of unsecured medical information. We must provide you with a copy of this notice and get your written acknowledgement of its receipt. We must follow the terms of this notice that are currently in effect.

We will tell you if we change this notice. A copy of the revised notice will be available upon request or posted at our location or on our Website www.cje.net. We may change our practices and those changes may apply to medical information we already have about you as well as any new information.

This notice will be given to you on the date that you first receive medical products or treatment from CJE SeniorLife. In an emergency, we will give you the notice as soon as possible after the emergency treatment has been given.

How We Use or Disclose Your Medical Information

For Treatment

We will use medical information about you to provide you with treatment and services. We may share this information with members of our healthcare staff or with others involved in your care such as doctors, nurses, or health care facilities. For example, a nurse who is providing your care will report any changes in your condition to your doctor. We may also disclose your health information to a member of your family or other person who is involved in your care.

CJE SeniorLife
Notice of Privacy Practices

For Payment

We may use or disclose your medical information to bill and collect payment for the services we provided to you. For example, we may need to give your health insurance plan information about your diagnosis, treatment and supplies used. We may also contact your insurance plan to confirm your coverage or to request prior approval for a planned treatment or service.

Health Care Operations

We may use or disclose your medical information for operational purposes. For example, we may use your medical information to evaluate our services, including the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also use this information to learn how to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care services that we provide to you.

Your name and address may be used to send out patient satisfaction surveys.

We may contact you either by telephone or by mail at the CJE SeniorLife facility, your home or your office to remind you of an appointment that you have with us or any other matter related to the health care services we provide or payment for your health care services. We may leave messages for you. If you want us to contact you in a certain way or at a certain location, see “Right to Receive Confidential Communications” in this notice.

There are some services that are provided for us by our business associates such as accountants, consultants and attorneys. Whenever we share information with our business associates we will have a written contract with them that requires that they protect the privacy of your medical information.

Other Use and Disclosures of Your Medical Information

- A request to provide your medical information to an attorney for use in a civil law suit.

Your Rights

The information contained in your health or medical record is the physical property of CJE SeniorLife. The information in it belongs to you. You have the following rights:

Right to Request Restrictions – You have the right to ask us not to use or disclose your medical information for a particular reason related to treatment, payment or our operations. In addition, if you pay for a particular service in full, out-of-pocket, on the date of service, you may ask us not to disclose any related medical information to your health plan for payment or health care operations purposes. You may ask that family members or other individuals not be informed of specific medical information. That request must be made in writing to the Designee. We do not have to agree to your request. If we agree to your request, we must keep the agreement, except in the case of a medical emergency. Either you or CJE SeniorLife can stop a restriction at any time.

Right to Receive Confidential Communications – You have the right to ask that we communicate with you in a certain manner or at a certain place. If you want to request confidential communications the request must be made in writing to the Designee. We must agree to your request if it is reasonable.

Right to Inspect and Copy Your Medical Information – You have the right to request to inspect and obtain a copy of your medical information. You must submit your request in writing to the Designee. If you request a copy of the information or that we provide you with a summary of the information we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, summarizing and/or mailing it to you.

If we agree to your request we will tell you. We may deny your request under certain limited circumstances. If your request is denied, we will let you know in writing and you may be able to request a review of our denial.

Right to Request Amendments to Your Medical Information – You have the right to request that we correct your medical information. If you believe that any medical information in your record is incorrect or that important information is missing, you must submit your request for an amendment in writing to the Designee.

We do not have to agree to your request. If we deny your request we will tell you why. You have the right to submit a statement disagreeing with our decision. We may deny your request if we determine that the information:

- Was not created by us
- Is not part of the medical information that we maintain
- Is in records that you are not allowed to inspect and copy
- Is already accurate or complete

Right To An Accounting of Disclosures of Health Information -- You have the right to find out what disclosures of your medical information have been made. The list of disclosures is
