

Policy, Advocacy and You

Taking Disability Advocacy to the Next Level

MARCH 14, 2019 | 8:30 AM–NOON

As a follow up to February's Jewish Disability Awareness and Inclusion Month activities, please join us to learn self-empowerment skills to more effectively advocate for meaningful state and local policy changes. This event features two dynamic nationally known self-advocates from Washington, D.C. who are excited to bring their message of empowerment and hope for meaningful policy change to Chicago.

Both speakers are from AUCD (Association of University Centers on Disabilities), a network of interdisciplinary centers advancing policy and practice for and with individuals with developmental and other disabilities, their families and communities.
